

SUGGESTED LESSON PLAN

D. VIII

SUMMARY, CONCLUSIONS

50 minutes

Resource for History, Politics, Citizenship, Religious Studies

This section sums up briefly the major claims of both sides, and subjects raised in previous sections, and addresses the wider concerns beyond the four core issues.

Aim

To remind the students of the wider issues of this conflict, and to enable them to reach their own conclusions based on a deeper knowledge of the problems.

Assignment

Essay: From what you have learnt from reading the history of the Arab-Israeli conflict and the statements from both sides, do you think that Israel, the PA/Fatah or Hamas are really willing to negotiate and to compromise? Do you think that the people themselves will make peace where their leader failed? What advice would you give the two sides on resolving the conflict?

Outcome

The students will now be familiar with the conflict, and the complex history of the region, and the claims of both sides.

They will have learnt the importance of understanding both sides of a conflict and of searching out information from a variety of sources to ensure balance and to reach their own conclusions.
